SPECIAL HELP IN THE HOME

Alarm Systems
 This system alleviates the serious problem of elderly people who get into difficulties in their homes and are unable to attract attention and get help. If you are an elderly person living alone your home can be fitted with this system.

Free Telephones
 The local authority will install a telephone in your home and pay the rental costs in accordance with the following conditions. In order to apply for this service you need a medical recommendation (ie. from your doctor). Also you need to meet some or all of the following conditions:

- a) you need to be able to contact a doctor quickly
  - b) you are in danger when left alone unless provided with a telephone
  - c) you live alone or if not are frequently left alone at home
  - d) you are unable in normal weather to leave home without help from another.
- If you think you may qualify for this service, but are not sure, apply anyway.

Home Helps
 If you are an elderly person or a disabled person living alone, you are eligible to apply for a home help. There is a maximum charge of 35p per hour but you may qualify for this service at a reduced rate or free of charge depending on your needs and income.

Home Bathing
 If you live alone and are unable to bath yourself without help, a home bathing service is operated by district nurses.

For information about all the above services contact your local social services department. For the name and address of your local office contact the Citizens Advice Bureau (236 774).
